Dear Judge Berman,

As an ardent NFL aficionado that has been following the so called "Deflategate" debacle with the utmost scrutiny, I whole heartedly believe as a concerned citizen that if a settlement isn't agreed upon, a vacated decision is in the best interest of the N.F.L., Mr. Brady and most importantly the integrity of the game.

In my humble opinion I believe there isn't an iota of credible concrete evidence linking Mr. Brady to the deflation of footballs before or during the A.F.C. Championship game on January 18, 2015. This is the fundamental crux of the episode that took place as a one sided affair after the correction of the footballs at halftime. I am confident that you will reach an equitable judgement.

Sincerely,

Hollister Lowe
